TO THE KING.

SIRE,

THE distinguished Honour which Your MAJESTY has conferred on the following Publication, in condescending to permit Your Royal Name to be prefixed to it, demands my Gratitude in a Degree which I am unable to express.

That Your MAJESTY may continue to enjoy every earthly Blessing, and that Your MAJESTY'S ROYAL RACE may long form an illustrious Theme for the Labours of future Genealogists, is the sincere Prayer of

YOUR MAJESTY'S

MOST FAITHFUL SUBJECT,

AND SERVANT,

Stonham Aspall,
June 4, 1795.

W. BETHAM.

THE Reader who comes to these TABLES with a previous knowledge of the subject, may be assured, that though he may find a disagreement with what he had formerly been taught respecting Consanguinity or Chronology, the alteration was never made hastily, nor without the sanction of the best authorities.

WHEN Authors of high reputation, and equal credibility, have happened to differ, recourse was always had to a coincidence of dates and actions, and the preference has been determined accordingly.

THE Editor would have gladly quoted the various authorities which have assisted him in the execution of his work, under the heads upon which they were consulted, if it could have been done without crouding the Tables, and thereby depriving them of their principal advantages---perspicuity, beauty, and uniformity. He must, therefore, content himself with mentioning those to whom he is most indebted: which are, The BIBLE; The UNIVERSAL HISTORY, with many particular histories of different kingdoms; the CLASSIC AUTHORS; ANDERSON'S GENEALOGIES; ROLLIN; SANDFORD; RAPIN; GUTHRIE; COLLINS; CRAWFORD; LODGE, and other Peerages. His chief guides in Chronology were NEWTON and BLAIR.

IT is proper to add, that he had been some years engaged in the work before he could procure ANDERSON: and whoever considers the scarceness of that laborious performance; the time since it was published; the complex manner of disposing the families, by blending History with Genealogy; besides the necessity of several new Tables, and large additions to the old ones, will, it is presumed, readily acknowledge the utility of the present undertaking.

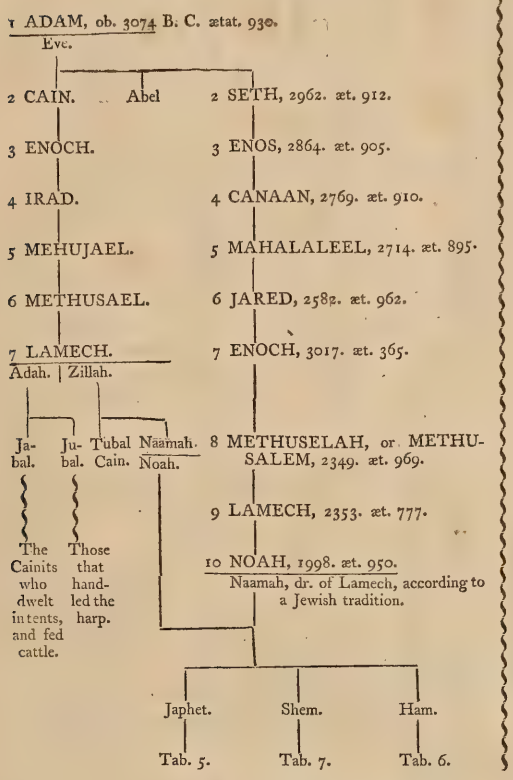
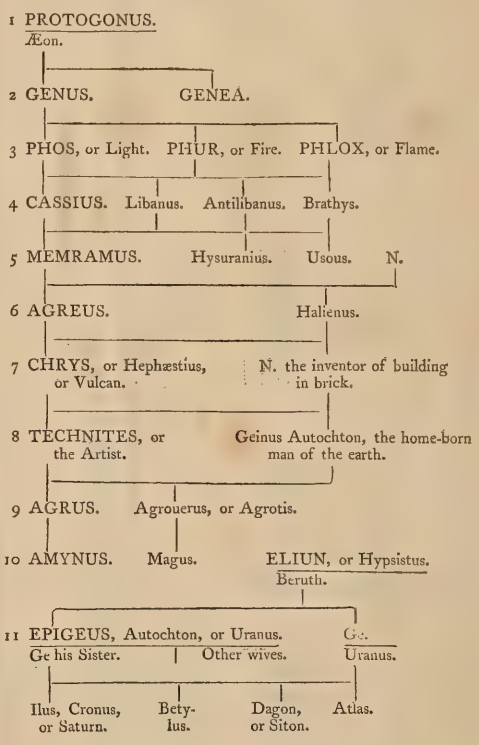
GENEALOGICAL TABLES.

Table I. Antediluvian Patriarchs.



Tab. II. Antediluvian Patriarchs, according to Profane History.



Tab. III. Chaldean Kings before the Flood, from Berosus.

	According to Africanus. Sari.	Yrs.	According to Abidenus. Sari.	Yrs.	According to Apollodorus. Sari.	Yrs.
1	Alorus reigned 10	00	Alorus - 10	00	Alorus - 10	00
2	Alaspharus - 3	00	Alaparus - 03	00	Alaparus - 00	00
3	Amelon - 13	00	Amilarus - 13	00	Amelon - 00	00
4	Amenon - 12	00	Amminon - 12	00	Ammenon - 00	00
5	Metalarus - 18	00	Megalarus - 18	00	Megalarus - 18	00
6	Daonus - 00	99	Daos - 10	00	Daonus - 10	00
7	Enedorachus 18	00	Eudoreschus 00	00	Enedoreschus 18	00
8	Amphis - 10	00	Anodaphus 00	00	Amempsinus 10	00
9	Othiartes - 08	00	N 00	00	Otiartes - 08	00
10	Xixuthrus - 18	00	Sisithrus - 00	00	Xisuthrus - 18	00
	110	99

The reigns of these kings Berosus computes by Sari, or Decads of Years, which seems to have been a very convenient method in those times, when the lives of men were at least ten times as long as they have been in later ages. According to which way of reckoning, the sum of all their reigns amounts to twelve hundred, or, more nicely, eleven hundred and ninety-nine years; a number which offers no violence to the Mosaic chronology.

The Egyptians have also a Series of Kings, who, as they pretend, reigned before the Flood; and their Account begins the same Year with that of Berosus.

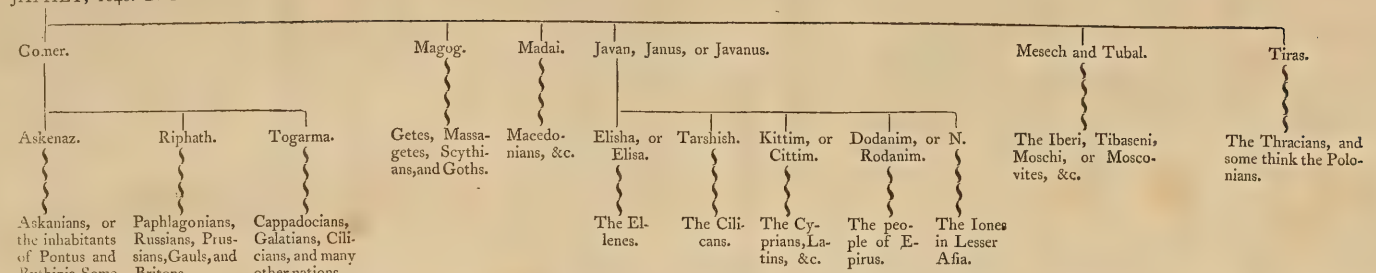
Tab. IV. Gods and Demigods, who are supposed to have reigned in Egypt.

	GODS.	Years.	M.	D.
1	Hephæstion, or Vulcan, reigned	724	6	4
2	Helios, or the Sun	86	0	0
3	Agathadæmon	56	6	10
4	Chronos, or Saturn	40	6	0
5	Osiris and Isis	35	0	0
6	N.	0	0	0
7	Typhon	29	0	0

	DEMI-GODS.	Years.	M.	D.
8	Orus	25	0	0
9	Aries, or Mars	23	0	0
10	Anubis	17	0	0
11	Hercules	15	0	0
12	Apollo	25	0	0
13	Ammon	30	0	0
14	Tithoes	27	0	0
15	Sosus	32	0	0
16	Zeus, or Jupiter	20	0	0

It must be observed, that the numbers in this Table were no part of the original record, but added by some moderns, who have mangled the Chronology according to their own fancies, and therefore deserve not much regard: they are transcribed as found in Synullus.

Tab. V. Postdiluvian Patriarchs of the Line of Japhet.



Some of these are names of the plural number, and are supposed therefore to be rather the names of nations than of particular men. By these were the isles of the Gentiles, or the Europeans, divided in their lands, every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations. Gen. x. 5.

But Moses takes no notice of their births, ages, or deaths, reserving that honour for the family of the Messiah.

Tab. VI. Postdiluvian Patriarchs of the Line of Ham.

It is sufficiently evident, from the years set down in the two Tables above, that there is a great mixture of fable and uncertainty in the accounts we have of these princes reigns, but there may, notwithstanding this, be a great deal of truth in these relations; and by comparing them with the Greek, and other writers of the Persian History, it may be very possible to extract a better idea of the ancient Persian empire, than could have been had without consulting the Oriental writers at all.

Herodotus reckons that Perdiccas was the first King of Macedon. Livy Pausanias, and Suidas makes Caranus the first king. Justin calls Perdiccas the successor of Caranus; and Solinus saith, that Perdiccas succeeded Caranus, and was the first that obtained the name of king. It is probable that Caranus and Perdiccas were contemporaries, Newton's Chro.
